

Craven College Centre for Construction & Heritage Skills

Further Education College

In our unique purpose built facilities, we offer traditional heritage craft training across a wide range of skill areas. We have part time training programmes with a variety of attendance options, we tailor programmes at both introduction and progression level, targeted for individuals or groups. We also offer the opportunity to train on live sites and historic buildings within the dales region.

Traditional heritage craft training across a wide range of skill areas. We have part time training programmes with a variety of attendance options, we tailor programmes at both introduction and progression level, targeted for individuals or groups. We also offer the opportunity to train on live sites and historic buildings within the dales region.

In our unique purpose built facilities nestled in the heart of the Yorkshire dales, we offer traditional heritage craft training across a wide range of skill areas. We have part time training programmes with a variety of attendance options, we tailor programmes at both introduction and progression level, targeted for individuals or groups. We also offer the opportunity to train on live sites and historic buildings within the dales region.

Traditional Craft Training

- Stone masonry (walling and banksman)
- Brickwork
- Plaster (hard lime mortars)
- Plaster (fibrous/decorative)
- Green timber framing
- Traditional carpentry and joinery
- Building with lime
- Stone carving and lettering
- Traditional decorative finishes
- Traditional wrought iron work and general blacksmithing
- Leaded/stained glass, manufacture, restoration and conservation

NVQ Level 3/CSCS Card Heritage

We offer training and assessment leading to the achievement of the NVQ level 3 heritage skills and subsequent access to the CSCS card for heritage and conservation.

Foundation Degree

From September 09 we have places available on our foundation degree in heritage construction and conservation management. This new foundation degree is industry based and delivered part time, for people who wish to further their career in the area of heritage construction and conservation.

For more details and information please contact Vanessa or Laura on 01756 708932, e-mail vbenson@craven-college.ac.uk or alternatively visit the Craven College website – www.craven-college.ac.uk

Pennine Building
Ghyll Way
Airdale Business Centre
Skipton
BD23 2TZ

T: 01756 708932
F: 01756 708937

W: www.craven-college.ac.uk